

NEWS IN BRIEF

Appeal to Labour

MR CALLAGHAN last night made a personal appeal for a truce in the Labour Party's internal constitutional battle. Back page.

£300,000 pay-off

A RECORD-breaking £300,000 "golden handshake" is being proposed for the chairman of Coral Leisure if the multi-million pound Grand Metropolitan takeover deal goes through. He will also make £600,000 for the sale of his shares. Page 15.

Drummer dies

JOHN BONHAM, aged 30, the drummer with the rock band Led Zeppelin, was found dead yesterday at the Berkshire home of the group's guitarist, Jimmy Page. A post-mortem examination is to be held today and the coroner has been informed. Back page.

Navy fuel cuts

A PLANNED cutback in fuel allocation to the Royal Navy as part of a Defence Ministry economy drive will affect all three armed services. Back page.

Ford dispute ends

THE unofficial dispute which stopped production of the new Ford Escort ended last night. Page 2.

The weather

BECOMING cloudy, with rain in the north. Details back page.